

One Question: Annual Meeting Length

1. Currently, the ASSH annual meeting is 2 ½ days long (Thursday through Saturday) with 1 ½ days (Wednesday and Thursday morning) dedicated for optional precourses. Our leadership would like to get members input on whether changes should be made to the pattern and length of our annual meeting. Which of the following annual meeting schedules would you prefer?

		Response Percent	Response Count
Current meeting pattern: Wednesday and Thursday morning for precourses; Thursday afternoon-Saturday for the main meeting		50.3%	86
Wednesday for precourses; Thursday–Saturday for the main meeting		19.9%	34
Thursday for precourses; Friday-Saturday for the main meeting		25.7%	44
Friday morning for precourses; Friday afternoon through Saturday for the main meeting		4.1%	7
		answered question	171
		skipped question	2

2. How long should the meeting be?

		Response Percent	Response Count
½ day for precourses and 2 ½ days for the main meeting (3 days total)		19.4%	33
1 day for precourses and 2 days for the main meeting (3 days total)		37.6%	64
1 ½ days for precourses and 2 ½ for the main meeting (4 days total)		38.8%	66
2 days for precourses and 3 days for the main meeting (5 days total)		4.1%	7
		answered question	170
		skipped question	3